Our Shared Prayer: An Epiphany Prayer

- The spirit is moving, will we be moved? The spirit calls, even the unlikely astrologers, to journey from the east, to find the Christ-child and offer their blessings. The Spirit is moving, will we be moved?
- The Spirit sparks, sparks the fascination of a Creator God incarnate even in the teenage years, with an imagination to stay and ask, to let family leave, to soak in the teaching, and explore the questions of the mind. The Spirit is moving, will we be moved?
- Even now, the Spirit is singing, inviting us, yes even us Mennonites, to dance with it. To take on the blessing, and to bring life and love in word and body. The Spirit is moving, will we be moved?

Written by Aiden Scherzinger, Associate Pastor, Foothills Mennonite, Calgary.

Mennonite Life and Church Activities

- In 2024, MCC helped provide relief, development and peace in 45 countries around the world. 28,583 relief kits helped families facing conflict or disaster. 299,458 people received emergency food assistance. 46,247 people gained an improved water source. Thank you for your part in the MCC story. Learn more at mcc.org.
- February 21-23: Mennonite Church Alberta's annual Snowcamp! Snowcamp is a weekend for youth in grades 7-12 to eat great food, listen to a compelling speaker, and get to know each other better. Snowcamp is run at Camp Valaqua by the Youth Leadership Team. Register through Pastor Suzanne.
- International Witness: Students receive educational assistance from AIMM. Seventeen students received Africa Inter-Mennonite Mission educational assistance this year to study in the fields of pastoral training, medicine, conflict resolution, environmental sciences, and nursing. Providing this opportunity to young people in the church helps those who do not have adequate resources to complete their education. It also strengthens the church by increasing the capacity of future leaders. Praise God for the way that AIMM works together to strengthen the church. You are part of this rich partnership through MCC.
